Social Side of Life

There is a feeling of Easter-tide in the air, and tomorrow all the churches will be fragrant with the perfume of beautiful blossoms. Madam, with the inner consciousness of duties well done, will look her sweetest in dainty Easter confections. Holy week has been marked by almost a cessation of the gaieties of Lent. It has been an unusually active Lent, and not until the week past has the tide turned in the opposite direction. Every one is looking forward to Easter, and tomorrow the churches will be filled with earnest worshippers. Easter is not regarded here as merely an excuse for a new hat, and the church people are always attentive and devout. The incentive for display on that day is not so great as it would be elsewhere, for Easter hats are always with us, as our seasons never vary.

What is this I hear? That Captain Berger and the band boys will soon be out of commission. Oh! I hope not, for Honolulu will never seem the same. When a man has been in one place for thirty-five years, and worked night and day in the interest of the public, the least the Public—with a big P—can do in order to show decent appreciation is to subscribe enough money to keep the Government Band going, and I hope the citizens will take the matter in hand. One cannot blame the Government for cutting down expenses—that is only being honest—but we want Kappelmeyer Berger and the band boys. We do not want Mr. Berger to pull up stakes and live away to countries strange, and that is just what will happen unless the expenses of the band can be assured. Mr. Berger is an ideal band-master. He is an institution in fact, and a living advertisement for the Islands—and I hope the Tourist Committee will recognize the fact and lend a helping hand. Let us think twice before we allow this man of genius to leave us.

The dinner given at the Alexander Young Hotel on Tuesday evening by Mr. Robert Shingle and Mr. A. Lewis, for the Misses Jones and Miss E. Lavino was a very charming affair. Red carnations and maiden-hair ferns made the table a bower of beauty. Covers were laid for fourteen. The guests were Mrs. Clifford Kimball, Miss Stella Potter, Miss Patsy, Miss Kathleen Crutwight, Mr. Clifford Kimball, Mr. Jack Atkinson, Mr. George Fuller, Mr. A. R. Brown, Mr. Arthur Mackintosh and Mr. Campbell.

The Stupakoff concert was the huge success it deserved to be. I think it rather a pity that Madam deems it necessary to change her name in order to please the public on the other side of the Pacific. It is certainly a mouthful, but when mastered could never be forgotten. It has the merit of being distinctive, and that in itself is an advertisement, and worth much to a public singer. The concert has been so well received that it is sufficient to say the large audience heartily enjoyed the musical treat and were thoroughly in sympathy with the artists.

Southard Hoffman, so well and favorably known in Honolulu as being warmly welcomed to San Francisco by his numerous friends, Mr. Hoffman does not intend to return here but will find some business opening in his native town. He is a great sportsman, and like his sister, Miss Alice, a leader in all things pertaining to athletics.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wakefield have returned from their wedding trip in Honolulu and the Orient, says the Examiner. They have been the recipients of several very delightful functions since their return. Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield will make their home in San Diego, where business interests hold Mr. Wakefield. Mrs. Wakefield was one of the charming brides of the Moana hotel and was very much entertained while here. Mr. Wakefield's mother and sister perished in the Rio disaster, it will be remembered.

The informal hop given at the Alexander Young Hotel on Tuesday evening for the passengers on the Siberia, was a very jolly and gay affair. These little dances are greatly appreciated not only by the passengers on the steamers, but by the townspeople, who get a chance to dance on a really good floor to good music. There are very few ball-rooms in private houses and the floor cloth is not always as good a substitute as we might imagine. The Moana has a hop nearly every Friday evening—and they are becoming quite popular. The Hawaiian Hotel is always a pleasant retreat, the broad lawns making dancing a delight and a joy forever.

Mrs. Anthony Ahlo expects to return to Honolulu in the latter part of the autumn. Mr. Ahlo will join his wife in England and they will return to Honolulu together. The grandmother of Mrs. Ahlo died shortly after her arrival in England.

Several members of "The Minutes," the dramatic company at the college, are spending the Easter vacation at the Peninsula. The young ladies are chaperoned by Miss Boardman, and among them are Irene Fisher, Gertrude Brown, Julia Dumas, Eunice Pratt and Beatrice Castle. Howard Castle, Perry White and about six other college boys have taken Miss Anna Paris' cottage for a few days and "The Minutes" will join in a round of festivities including an informal fancy dress party which came off on Friday evening. It was a very jolly way to spend the Easter vacation and the young people are having what they call a rousing good time, and the cows and the horses are the only ones to be disturbed by the unwarranted excitement, everybody is happy. They expect to return on Monday, for vacation ends and the young people have to buckle down to hard work once more.

The Patons and the Edward Damons are enjoying the country at Waialua on Saturday until Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Paton have just returned from a large dinner in honor of the natal day of Mrs. Paton, for Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Macfarlane have invitations out requesting the pleasure of your company at Waikiki, Tuesday evening, the fifth of April on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Holt are giving a large "at home" for Canon and Mrs. Mackintosh on the eleventh.

Prince Pu Lun, Chinese Commissioner to the St. Louis Exposition, is expected to arrive in Honolulu on the steamer Gaelic. Secretary of State Hay has cabled Governor Carter to extend him every courtesy. The band and the military will escort the distinguished visitor from the steamer to the Alexander Young Hotel. Everything will be done to show proper courtesy and respect for his high rank.

Miss Flora Donaldson and Mr. Gavin Spence departed in the Sonoma and the Scottish Thistle Club gave them a delightful "send-off." The two artists were very much pleased with their reception in Honolulu, and expect to come again.

A San Francisco paper says that the application for divorce of Mrs. May Mott-Smith Bird of Honolulu from her husband did not surprise her friends, who have known for some time that she had come home to remain. She has been a good bit in society, and is able to make a very good living by setting jewelry in rare and antique fashions. She rummages shops and picks up bargains and resells the jewels. She has a jeweler do the work for her. Society has patronized her very largely. At present she is occupying the studio of Theodore Wores while he is in Spain.

Mr. George Morgan, who married a Japanese maiden of high degree, passed through San Francisco on his way to New York. At the opera in New York she attracted a great deal of attention, which seemed to please her husband exceedingly. The little Japanese girl wore a very dull dark-blue kimono, flowered with shaded light pink flowers embroidered on the blue. Her fingers sparkled with rings, and about one slim wrist a bracelet was fastened. Her jet-black hair was rolled smoothly back and arranged in the approved Japanese coiffure, with ten pink roses without foliage fastened at the left and a little above the ear.

Mrs. E. D. Tenney has cards out for a large "at home" for Mrs. Mackintosh.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Macfarlane and daughters are spending the week-end at their ranch.

Mr. Lot Kaulukou sang last Sunday evening most beautifully at the Central Union Church. He will be heard from in the future.

Mrs. M. M. Price sailed for the Orient after a visit of several months in Honolulu.

Mr. George Bliss and son have gone to the Volcano.

Mr. Bruce Cartwright has rooms at the Royal Hawaiian hotel.

and Miss von Holt for Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. William N. Armstrong's book "Around the World with a King" is attracting much attention from the critics. It is called clever and readable—and very unlike the usual book of travels. Mr. Armstrong has made his home in Honolulu for the past few years and is easily one of the most interesting men here. He has a striking personality, and a keen tongue, which he uses more or less mercilessly—according to his mood.

There were crowds of people seeing old friends at the sailing of the Korea. Among those who departed were Mr. and Mrs. James Castle and Mr. Percy White, who go to Winchester Springs, Massachusetts, and then for a tour of Europe. Miss Kathleen Cartwright, who expects to spend a year abroad, Miss Gertrude Jones and Miss Lavino, who return to New Jersey. Miss Alice Jones goes to San Francisco for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gay will visit Europe and Miss Lucy, their guest on Kauai, returns to her home in California. Mr. and Mrs. Merrill and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. S. Merrill, return to San Francisco. Mrs. J. O. Carter and Mrs. S. M. Damon have been most hospitable in their attentions to the Merrills. Miss Merrill and Miss Hammond accompanied the family. Mrs. S. M. Damon and Miss May Damon will go east in the search of health. Miss May Damon being far from well. Mr. Cockburn, who returns to Scotland for a three-month visit, and many other Honolulu people, making the Korea a sort of "streets of Honolulu."

The news of the sad accident to Mr. F. A. MacKenzie, the war correspondent, has greatly depressed the friends of Mrs. MacKenzie, who sailed about two weeks ago to join her husband. Mrs. MacKenzie has been for several months past at the hotel Moana and has made many friends.

W. F. Schmidt and Miss Margaret Thomas will be joined together in holy matrimony on Monday evening at the Central Union Church.

Mr. Hedemann and Mr. Milliken, of New York, have gone to the other islands. Mrs. Milliken and Mrs. Moore of New York city are at the Young Hotel.

Mrs. Spilvalo and Miss Spilvalo are in town. They paid a visit to Honolulu about a year and a half ago.

Mr. Charles Dole sailed in the Korea for his home in California. He seemed in good spirits and looked the picture of health.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Macfarlane and daughters are spending the week-end at their ranch.

Mr. Lot Kaulukou sang last Sunday evening most beautifully at the Central Union Church. He will be heard from in the future.

ACCUSES FULLERTON OF WRONG DOING

As guardian of Mary J. Clench, Mary F. Cousins files petition for settlement of the estate of W. C. Clench, who died leaving a wife and two sons, Wm. C. in Canada, and Thomas B. in Honolulu.

Petitioner prays that administrator J. E. Fullerton may be required to give an accounting of the funds and to pay them into court, with all profits, and that he be discharged. Castle & Withington are her attorneys.

Petitioner further says that she has been informed and believes, and on such information and belief alleges, that said Fullerton has been using the funds of said estate for his private gain in making loans on interest from time to time and has realized large profits therefrom which justly and of right belong to said estate.

Your petitioner further shows that said Mary J. Clench, who suffered greatly from rheumatic troubles, left the Territory of Hawaii to reside in California in the year 1901 and thereafter took up her abode in a home for aged people in San Jose in said California, but that being of an extremely aggressive nature she caused such constant trouble and disturbances that an application was filed by her daughter, Mary F. Cousins, the petitioner herein, for guardianship, which application was duly granted and petitioner was appointed such guardian with full power to act in all matters affecting

CAPTURED SUBMARINE.

New York, March 14.—A cable to the Herald from London says: In the naval maneuvers today Admiral Wilson's ingenious expedient for fishing for submarines proved completely successful.

Officers on picket boats attached to one of the nets saw a periscope moving on the face of the water, and they so maneuvered as to bar its progress.

A few minutes later a straining at the hawser told they had stopped the career of the submarine.

Immediately the boats altered their course, so as to completely envelop the unfortunate under-water craft in their net.

The maneuver was crowned with success, as the little vessel not only found itself in the toils, but the hawser having carried away its periscope, its sole means of seeing what was happening on the surface, the crew could do nothing but await developments.
